INGREDIENTS

- 10 slices bacon, lightly smoked
- 1 slice trammezzini, white
- 0.5 dl cream
- 400 g haricot beans, cooked
- 60 g Bresc chutney tomato
- 60 g tomato juice
- 20 g Bresc horseradish puree
- 8 g Vegatol
- 4 g agar agar
- 4 quail eggs
- 4 dl water
- chives, in batonnets
- salt and pepper
- olive oil

PREPARATION METHOD

Use a cutter to cut out circles from the trammezzini and toast the bread. Puree the cooked beans and mix the puree with the cream and agar agar. Season with horseradish puree, salt and pepper. Place the bacon slices in overlapping layers on the plastic foil and divide the haricot bean puree evenly over them. Roll everything up using the plastic foil and steam the rolls in the oven for 5 minutes. Remove the plastic foil from the rolls and bake in the oven for 5 minutes at 180 °C. Heat the tomato juice until it is lukewarm and stir in the tomato chutney, then pour it into a silicon mould and freeze it. Mix the water with the Vegatol, dip the frozen tomato yolks in it and let them thaw. Grease a blini pan with oil and fry the quail eggs. Place a slice of the haricot bean roll on the toast and arrange the tomato yolk on top. Arrange the fried quail egg on top of that and garnish with chives.
