Preheat the oven to 180°C, grill setting. Wash and chop the cabbage. Cut the spring chickens in half. Grate the lemon and mix the grated peel and half the lemon's juice, $\frac{1}{4}$ of the oil, the pomodori marinati, garlic and the red chilli puree. Rub the sauce into the chicken. Put the chicken in the oven and place a drip tray under it. Grill the spring chickens for 20 to 25 minutes until they are crisp. Turn them regularly, pouring the liquid over the chickens. Stir-fry the cabbage and season with salt, pepper and a little balsamic vinegar.
